

Services & Industries Products Liability

Our firm's experience in counseling clients on matters of products liability ranges from prevention to defense of disputes when they arise. Manufacturers of products have come to rely on us for our record in defense of products liability matters and toxic tort lawsuits, including representation before administrative agencies and in state and federal courts.

Our representation includes defense against claims of damage to personal property, as well as personal injury and wrongful death, among others.

Our experience in litigation is enriched by the background of our attorneys and professionals in engineering and scientific fields, allowing us to advise clients on risk management, as well as litigation matters in a wide range of industries.
