Lowndes

Creditors' Rights & Bankruptcy

Our attorneys who practice in bankruptcy, creditors' rights and commercial litigation have vast experience in all aspects of sophisticated bankruptcy practice and litigation, the enforcement and restructuring of problem loans, and federal and state commercial trial and appellate practice.

We regularly appear in all Federal Bankruptcy and District Courts in Florida and in most Circuit Courts throughout the state. The firm's bankruptcy attorneys frequently appear in major cases throughout the country on behalf of our clients.

Our creditors' rights attorneys have substantial experience in the representation of commercial, asset-based and consumer lending in connection with:

- Sophisticated state and federal court creditors' rights litigation, including suits to recover monies owed, real estate and personal property foreclosures and replevin, attachment and injunction actions
- Receiverships
- Workout of problem loans
- Debt restructuring
- Defense of lender liability claims
- Residential mortgage foreclosures, timeshare foreclosures
- Deeds-in-lieu of foreclosure and friendly foreclosures
- Defense of lender liability claims
- Fraudulent conveyance claims
- Assignments for the benefit of creditors
- Commercial bank operation issues
