

Securities

The Lowndes Securities team advises companies, investors, high-net-worth individuals, and business leaders on capital raising, private placements, strategic transactions, and governance matters. Our attorneys bring extensive experience in securities offerings, angel and venture financing, M&A, entity structuring, commercial real estate transactions, and tax-efficient planning.

Capital Raising & Securities Offerings

- Securities offerings and private placements for high-net-worth individuals, startups, and mature companies
- Venture capital and private equity investments, including investor negotiations and deal structuring
- Entity formation, reorganizations, and dissolution tied to ownership and capital strategy
- Tax-efficient structuring of transactions and compensation programs

Corporate Transactions

- Mergers & acquisitions (sell-side and buy-side), including mid-market transactions
- Commercial transactions involving equity components or ownership transfers
- Organizational and entity-level planning, including capital restructuring
- Deals involving commercial real estate tied to ownership or investment structures

Governance & Strategic Advisory

- Corporate governance for boards, officers, and managers
- Documentation and planning

Why Lowndes

With deep experience in transactional law, tax strategy, real estate, and commercial litigation, our team brings a well-rounded and business-minded approach to securities matters. We support clients through capital growth, strategic transactions, governance needs, and dispute resolution with clear, practical guidance.

Related Professionals

Kevin M. Barry

Ethan S. Moore