Connor O'Brien is an attorney in the Corporate Group at Lowndes and works out of the firm's Melbourne and Orlando offices. He focuses his practice in general corporate and transactional matters.

Connor is a lifelong resident of Brevard County and a longtime volunteer with The Zazza Community Foundation's Jingle Jet event, which provides families met with undue hardship a holiday experience, including a flight to a local hangar decorated as the North Pole.

An avid reader, Connor created and manages a successful YouTube channel where he publishes video reviews of books, comics, and other works that he has read.
