Hanna Edeback represents a wide array of clients in the acquisition, sale and leasing of commercial real estate, including industrial, multi-family, senior housing, office and retail projects. She also assists with complex commercial lending transactions, including real estate, asset-based and other types of loans.

A substantial portion of Hanna's legal practice is focused on industrial leasing, and she has significant experience advising both landlords and tenants on the unique issues arising through complex leasing transactions involving industrial, warehouse and manufacturing spaces. With clients ranging from private investment firms and regional property management companies to national retailers and local nonprofits, she has handled the negotiation and closing of numerous multi-million dollar transactions throughout Florida.

Active in the community, Hanna currently serves on the board of directors for CREW Orlando, and she is a member of the Orange County Bar Association and the Florida Waterski Federation. She also volunteers with USA Waterski and Junior Achievement of Central Florida and supports Heart of Florida United Way through her firm.

Hanna has been recognized as a "Florida Rising Star" by Florida Super Lawyers and listed in "Ones to Watch" by Best Lawyers. She received her juris doctor degree magna cum laude from the University of Florida Levin College of Law and her bachelor's degree with distinction from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

In her free time, she is an avid international competitor in the sport of waterskiing and has been a record holder, a European champion and a member of the Swedish national team.
