

May-Soo Ide

LAW CLERK

Orlando

May-Soo Ide is a law clerk in the firm's Commercial Leasing practice group, where she supports attorneys advising landlords and tenants on a range of commercial leasing matters.

Before joining the Commercial Leasing practice group, May-Soo served as a summer law clerk with Lowndes, gaining experience across its Corporate, Real Estate and Commercial Litigation practice groups. She previously worked as a law clerk with a full-service regional law firm, where she assisted with public finance transactions and affordable housing projects. She also served as an editor for the Institute of Intergovernmental Research.

May-Soo earned her J.D. from Emory University School of Law. During law school, she was selected as a 2025 Kessler-Eidson Scholar in recognition of her performance in the school's intensive trial advocacy program. She was also a member of the Emory Corporate and Business Law Society.

She earned a bachelor's degree in English and philosophy, magna cum laude, from Florida State University.

Florida Bar admission pending*

Publications

Buying Distressed Real Estate in Florida: 6 Strategies Every Investor Should Know

08.06.2025 | ARTICLE

Practices & Industries

Commercial Leasing

Real Estate

Education

Emory University School of Law,
J.D., with honors, 2026,
concentration in Civil Litigation and Dispute Resolution

Florida State University, B.A., magna cum laude, Philosophy/
Communication & Media Studies,
2021