Leading Generation Z

Presentation
Central Florida Hotel & Lodging Association
10.03.2024

Attorney Jyllian Bradshaw will be a featured speaker for "Leading Generation Z" on Thursday, October 3, 2024, which is part of the Leadership Development Series hosted by the Central Florida Hotel & Lodging Association. The seminar will focus on understanding and engaging the newest generation entering the workforce, Generation Z. Bradshaw will share insights into different communication styles, best practices for effectively onboarding this generation, expectations in the workplace, and the reasons they may leave an employer.

Bradshaw concentrates her practice on representing management in a broad range of employment issues, labor matters, litigation, and counseling. She represents employers in collective bargaining and union matters, as well as the defense of employment disputes, such as claims of discrimination, retaliation, whistleblowing, and compensation violations.
