Lowndes is pleased to announce that Chairman Bill Dymond has been appointed as a member of Dr. Phillips, Inc. and The Dr. Philip Phillips Foundation of Dr. Phillips Charities.

"Joining Dr. Phillips Charities is a tremendous honor," said Dymond. "I look forward to supporting its powerful work to uplift communities through thoughtful, strategic giving."

Dr. P. Phillips was a visionary whose charitable contributions and entrepreneurship helped create a vibrant, thriving community in Central Florida. The Dr. Phillips name has been a major economic and philanthropic presence in the Central Florida community since the turn of the 20th century. Dr. Phillips Charities (Dr. Phillips Inc. and The Dr. P. Phillips Foundation) uses the earnings from its investment and real estate income to give financial assistance to hundreds of charities serving primarily in Orange and Osceola counties. Dr. Phillips has contributed more than $257 million in grants, pledges and program-related investments to Central Florida charities responding to the needs of the community and directly touching the lives of thousands of children and families.

Dymond is the chairman of Lowndes, having previously served as the firm's chief executive officer and president for more than 16 years. A recognized leader in his field, Bill advises clients on a broad range of real estate and business matters, with a particular focus on the hotel, resort and leisure industry.

Named to Florida Trend's annual list of most influential business leaders for years, Bill is a member of the firm's Hospitality & Leisure Group, which has handled over $30 billion in real estate transactions throughout Central Florida, the United States, and Canada. With almost 40 years of experience in real estate acquisition, finance and development, Bill provides comprehensive guidance on the unique challenges faced by clients in this ever-changing and highly competitive sector. He advises hotel and resort owners in connection with all aspects of their business, including development, operating agreements, licensing, franchising, lodging and financing matters. He also serves as general counsel to Visit Orlando, the region's convention and visitor's bureau.
