Lowndes is pleased to announce that Chairman Bill Dymond has been appointed to the Florida Council of 100 (FC100) Board of Directors.

The Florida Council of 100 is a private, nonprofit, nonpartisan organization that brings together the CEOs of Florida's leading companies to strengthen the state's long-term competitiveness, expand economic opportunity for future generations, and advance solutions that better the lives of all Floridians.

Dymond is the chairman of Lowndes, having previously served as the firm's chief executive officer and president for more than 16 years. A recognized leader in his field, Bill advises clients on a broad range of real estate and business matters, with a particular focus on the hotel, resort and leisure industry.

Named to Florida Trend's annual list of most influential business leaders for years, Bill is a member of the firm's Hospitality & Leisure Group, which has handled over $30 billion in real estate transactions throughout Central Florida, the United States, and Canada. With almost 40 years of experience in real estate acquisition, finance and development, Bill provides comprehensive guidance on the unique challenges faced by clients in this ever-changing and highly competitive sector. He advises hotel and resort owners in connection with all aspects of their business, including development, operating agreements, licensing, franchising, lodging and financing matters. He also serves as general counsel to Visit Orlando, the region's convention and visitor's bureau.
