Lowndes is pleased to announce that attorney Brandon José has been appointed to the Ronald McDonald House Charities of Central Florida Key Initiative Young Professionals Committee.

The Key Initiative (KI) committee engages young professionals to host fundraising events and raise awareness for the Ronald McDonald House Charities. Comprising around 30 emerging leaders, the group helps connect the organization with metro Orlando's vibrant 20-to-40-year-old community.

José focuses his practice on construction law, including both construction-related transactions and litigation matters. He assists in handling complex commercial disputes involving transactions, contracts, insurance, construction defects, and regulatory compliance. He works with builders, architects, engineers, developers, contractors, subcontractors, and suppliers.
