

Jim O'Brien and Andrew Kelly Author Trade Secrets Article for Orlando Inno

News Release
08.11.2021

Jim O'Brien and Andrew Kelly have authored an article entitled "Protecting Your Trade Secrets from the Risks of Remote Working" for Orlando Inno, a multi-media platform launched in partnership with the Orlando Business Journal that covers headlines focused on innovation, technology and Central Florida startups.

The article addresses how a company can protect one of its most valuable assets—its trade secrets—in today's work-from-home environment. It also discusses the protections available for protecting trade secrets under Florida law.

"The fact that a company may consider, and even advise employees, that certain information is 'proprietary' is not enough to ensure protection as a trade secret. Under FUTSA, the company must make reasonable efforts to keep the information a secret and prevent it from being disclosed to third parties."
