

Lowndes Advises Foundry Commercial on Acquisition of Maxis Advisors

Press Release Lowndes 02.03.2022

Lowndes has advised Foundry Commercial on its acquisition of Maxis Advisors, a location analysis and incentives advisory firm based in Charlotte, North Carolina.

The acquisition enhances Foundry's existing services and expands their offerings to include incentive negotiation and analysis; site selection and location analysis; real estate advisory; labor analytics; and incentives compliance. It is the 11th M&A transaction for Foundry since its launch in 2007.

Foundry is a full-service real estate services and investment company with more than 60 million square feet of leasing and management across the Southeast and Texas. The company provides corporate services, brokerage, leasing, building management and project management services.

The Lowndes team was led by Rachel Gebaide (labor and employment law), with support from Patti Cook (corporate/M&A) and Quino Martinez (real estate).

Related Attorneys

Rachel D. Gebaide Patti Cook Joaquin E. Martinez