Lowndes Advises Marriott Vacations Worldwide on 300K SF Lease of New Headquarters

Press Release

Lowndes

02.15.2024

Lowndes has advised Marriott Vacations Worldwide Corporation in connection with a nearly 300,000-square-foot lease for the company's new global corporate headquarters in Orlando, Fla.

Marriott Vacations Worldwide signed a lease agreement with an affiliate of Unicorp National Developments, Inc., to construct a nine-story, state-of-the-art building within the new City Center at O-Town West project, developed by Unicorp National Developments, Inc. The project is prominently located along Interstate 4 and Daryl Carter Parkway.

The company's new corporate headquarters, leased in January 2020, is designed to offer an innovative work environment for MVW's 1,500 Orlando based corporate associates. The company began a phased move-in in November 2023 and held an open house for employees' family and friends in January 2024, highlighting the commitment to a sustainable and employee-friendly workspace.

Lowndes attorney Michael Gibbons advised on the development agreement for the building, while attorneys Tim Miedona, Hanna Edeback, and Rich Fildes advised on negotiation of the lease.
