Orlando, FL – Lowndes is pleased to announce that Shareholder Michael Provenzale has been elected as Chairman of the Harry P. Leu Gardens Board of Trustees. He has served on the board since 2015 and was previously Vice Chairman of the board. The board is responsible for overseeing the control, management, operations, and maintenance of Leu Gardens. Located just minutes from downtown Orlando, Leu Gardens is one of the most historic sites in Orlando.

Provenzale works in the Creditors' Rights Group, representing institutional and private lenders in commercial loan foreclosure and other collection lawsuits, receiverships, workouts, bankruptcies, and REO dispositions throughout the state. His litigation practice also includes business, real estate, and condominium litigation. Additionally, Provenzale has experience in the area of real estate transactions, development and finance, where he has represented a myriad of private and public clients in connection with the leasing, financing, acquisition, and disposition of commercial real estate, and has published several articles on current creditors' rights and real estate issues. Provenzale has his undergraduate degree from the University of Florida and his law degree from the Florida State University College of Law.
