Orlando, FL - Lowndes, Drosdick, Doster, Kantor & Reed is pleased to announce that, effective April 2, Crystal Espinosa Buit has become an of counsel attorney with the firm. Buit served as an associate at the firm previously.

“Congratulations to Crystal,” said CEO & President William T. Dymond. “This new position and status with our firm is well deserved in her case, and I am confident that her legal and business skills will continue to be a great benefit to the firm and the clients we serve.”

Buit focuses her legal practice on family and marital law. In this role, Buit concentrates on family law matters such as divorce, child support, child custody, alimony and family law litigation involving complex financial and parenting issues. Buit is trained in the interdisciplinary model of collaborative family law. She is a frequent speaker and writer on the topic of family law. A graduate of the University of Central Florida (UCF), Buit serves on the UCF Alumni Board of Directors. She has participated in leadership roles at UCF while a student and since her graduation from law school in 2009 from the University of Florida Levin College of Law. Additionally, Buit was honored with a UCF Jefferson Award for her volunteer work with the UCF Alumni Association.
