Orlando, FL – Lowndes, Drosdick, Doster, Kantor & Reed is pleased to announce that three new associates Andrew Kelly, Rasheem Johnson, and Johnathan Pickett joined the firm after graduating from law school and passing the Bar this summer. Previously, Kelly spent the summer with the firm as a law clerk. Johnson and Pickett are both new to the firm. Davis, who worked in the firm’s Commercial Litigation Group, has returned to Lowndes after working for two boutique law firms in the areas of family law, litigation and labor & employment.

“We are always pleased to add new and talented attorneys to the firm. Andrew, Rasheem and Jonathan are great additions to our firm,” said William T. Dymond, CEO & President of the firm.

Kelly has begun his career in the firm’s Real Estate Group. In this role, Andrew focuses his legal practice on real estate development, finance and transactions, condominiums, property owners’ associations, commercial leasing, commercial lending, and title insurance. Kelly graduated from the University of Florida Levin College of Law.

Johnson works in the firm’s Land Use, Zoning & Environmental Group. In this role, he assists clients statewide on entitling projects for commercial, residential, industrial, office, and mixed uses. He is a graduate from the University of Florida Levin College of Law.

Pickett joined the firm’s Litigation Group. He primarily focuses his legal practice on complex litigation, civil litigation, commercial litigation, business litigation, intellectual property litigation, family law, and probate and trust litigation. He received his law degree from Emory University.
