

Lowndes Land Use Group and Four Attorneys Recognized by Chambers and Partners in its 2022 USA Guide

Awards & Recognition
06.13.2022

Lowndes is pleased to announce that Chambers and Partners has recognized four Lowndes attorneys, along with the firm's Land Use, Zoning & Environmental Group, in its 2022 Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business.

Miranda Fitzgerald, shareholder emeritus, Hal Kantor, shareholder and name partner, and Rebecca Wilson, shareholder and chair of the firm's Land Use, Zoning & Environmental Group, were recognized in zoning/land use law, and Joe Lane, shareholder, was recognized in construction mediation.

According to Chambers, the Lowndes Land Use, Zoning & Environmental Group "provides a comprehensive service to clients active in the real estate industry. Widely recognized as one of the state's leading firms in the land use and zoning sphere. Other areas of focus include portfolio and single-asset acquisitions, dispositions, development and leasing. Particular strength in the Orlando market."

Clients report that Lowndes "is the firm to go to in Orlando matters" and that the firm "has a great deal of expertise in the real estate sector, especially in transactional and land use matters."

Notable practitioners

- Miranda Fitzgerald handles the full gamut of land use matters for her clients, providing the benefit of her experience on a range of projects including residential and mixed-use developments.
- Hal Kantor has a longstanding reputation in the Florida market. He draws on his vast experience to counsel clients on land use, zoning and environmental matters.
- Rebecca Wilson, chair of Lowndes' land use, zoning and environmental group, covers both the land use and environmental issues concerned with development projects, regularly advising owners, developers and lenders.
