December 9, 2025 - Orlando, FL – Lowndes, one of Central Florida's largest law firms, has entered into an agreement to acquire Rossway, Swan, Tierney, Barry & Oliver, P.L., a full-service law firm with offices in Melbourne, Vero Beach, and Miami. This acquisition expands Lowndes' footprint along Florida's east coast and strengthens its capabilities in business and corporate law, real estate, litigation, family law, estate planning, guardianship and health care.

Rossway Swan brings a team of talented attorneys whose expertise complements Lowndes' existing strengths. The acquisition broadens Lowndes' reach in Brevard County and adds offices in Indian River and Miami-Dade counties, enabling the firm to better serve clients across Florida's most dynamic markets.

"This acquisition positions Lowndes as one of Florida's most comprehensive law firms," said Quino Martinez, CEO and Managing Shareholder of Lowndes. "Rossway Swan's strong reputation and proven expertise complement our existing strengths, enabling us to deliver unparalleled service across the state. With a shared commitment to client service and community, we look forward to moving ahead together and providing clients with the tailored legal solutions they have come to expect."

Kevin M. Barry, the Managing Member of Rossway Swan, added: "Joining forces with Lowndes gives us the opportunity to align with a firm that shares our values and has earned exceptional brand recognition in the communities we serve. Our clients will benefit from the resources of a larger platform while preserving the strong relationships and trusted counsel that have long defined our practice."

The acquisition is expected to become effective on February 1, 2026. At that time, attorneys previously with Rossway Swan will be practicing under the Lowndes name and will remain dedicated to their clients while accessing a larger platform to service existing clients and new business.
