Lowndes is pleased to announce that attorney Nicole Leath was recently appointed to the Orlando Science Center (OSC) Board of Trustees. She also serves as chair of Young Professionals for OSC. As Central Florida's award-winning, hands-on science museum, OSC has provided science exhibits and programming to local residents and visitors for more than 60 years.

An Orlando native, Cuccaro's fond memories of visiting the museum as a child inspired her involvement with OSC. She looks forward to serving as ambassador for the organization and supporting its mission of inspiring science learning for life.

Cuccaro, an associate in the firm's Orlando office, focuses her practice on real estate transactions, real estate development and commercial leasing, including the acquisition, disposition, leasing and financing of commercial real estate in the retail and hospitality industries. In addition to her legal practice, Cuccaro is also a member of Florida Blue Key and actively involved in the Orange County Bar Association, Young Lawyers Section.

Cuccaro earned her Juris Doctor degree, cum laude, from the University of Florida Levin College of Law and a Bachelor of Science degree, summa cum laude, in public relations with a minor in business administration from the University of Florida.
