

A horizontal banner with a dark background and abstract, colorful, curved light patterns in shades of orange, yellow, and red.

News

Quino Martinez Appointed to Orlando Economic Partnership Board of Directors & Executive Committee

Press Release

Lowndes

11.05.2024

Related Attorneys

Joaquin E. Martinez

Lowndes is pleased to announce that President and CEO Joaquin "Quino" Martinez has been appointed to the Orlando Economic Partnership Board of Directors and Executive Committee.

The Orlando Economic Partnership is the Orlando region's economic and community development organization focused on advancing inclusive economic growth by diversifying the economy and attracting investment. Through collaboration, it aims to strengthen regional leadership and competitiveness.

Martinez concentrates his practice on commercial leasing and real estate investment and development. His clients include public and private real estate investors, developers, property management companies and brokerage firms, as well as non-profits.