Lowndes is pleased to announce that Shareholder Rebecca "Becky" Wilson has been elected to the University of Florida Kelley A. Bergstrom Real Estate Center's Real Estate Advisory Board.

The advisory board plays an integral role in advancing opportunities for University of Florida students. Through meaningful contributions of time, capital, and industry expertise, board members actively support student development and career readiness. Their hands-on involvement helps shape program initiatives, foster mentorship, and create valuable connections that prepare students for successful careers in the real estate industry.

Wilson represents property owners, developers, lenders, and other stakeholders in matters involving zoning, comprehensive planning, administrative law, DRIs, procurement, due diligence, and property rights. Chambers USA notes she "can be tough when she needs to be," reflecting her strong advocacy on behalf of clients. Her practice focuses on complex real estate development projects, including high-rise and mixed-use developments, hotels, planned communities, retail centers, office buildings, multifamily housing, student housing, senior living, affordable housing, and projects within historic districts.
