

What to know as Seminole mulls bear-resistant trash cans for residents

Media Mention

10.11.2015

Lowndes shareholder Gary Kaleita discusses what to know as Seminole county mulls bear-resistant trash cans for residents with The Orlando Sentinel.

"We still get bears, but we're not getting that many... But the ones that do come in, they look around and walk away. But FWC has reported to us that the communities next to us have reported an increase in bear sightings."
