William T. Dymond, Jr.

Lowndes CEO & President, William T. Dymond, will be honored with the Orlando Economic Development Commission's 2017 James B. Greene award at their annual award dinner.

Jim Greene was a visionary leader to central Florida - a pioneer who shaped our history and defined our future. His special focus on transportation paved the way for our economic progress; so much so that the Central Florida Greenway was named after him. We remember Jim for his dedication, integrity, community spirit and his will to serve. The James B. Greene Award is given annually to an individual who, like Jim Greene, makes extraordinary contributions to our economy.
