

Insights

Special Edition: Contested Elections: Looking Back at 2000 Amid 2020

Lowndes Legal Talk
11.02.2020

In this special election edition of Lowndes Legal Talk, Lowndes attorneys Terry Young and Greg McNeill share how they successfully defended the Seminole County Supervisor of Elections in the aftermath of the controversial 2000 presidential election, as well as insights on what we can expect to see during the 2020 election.

The 2000 case, which centered on claims of impropriety regarding absentee ballots, garnered national attention and helped George W. Bush to maintain his statewide lead over Al Gore, and ultimately win the White House.

Related Attorneys

Greg McNeill

Terry C. Young

Related Expertise

Litigation